

VILLA HERMIA

FAMILY

SANTORINI

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Guests: 6

Halfway between Imerovigli and Oia, Villa Hermia is striking in its beauty, emerging, as it appears, from the island's famed caldera. Elevated up high, this Santorini Villa offers breathtaking and uninterrupted views of the sea below, with the surrounding islets forming picture perfect scenery. The Cycladic white-washed volume of this luxury villa creates a balanced structure against the rocks, with yellow windows and doors – rather than the traditional cobalt blue – creating an interesting visual effect.

The outdoor area benefits from the Villa's location, with the private swimming pool and the Jacuzzi giving the impression that they are part of the wider blue. Guests can spend many Beyond Spaces hours simply gazing at the horizon. Palm trees and rocks resembling sculptures give an exotic feel to the terrace.

The Villa's interior is crisp in its whiteness, with splashes of color accentuating the composition. In the all-white living and dining areas, teal and yellow appear in sofas, pillows, and a coffee table, while designer chairs give the dining table a modern touch. The lime yellow kitchen offers a vibrant note. The bedrooms are bright and spacious, following the color arrangements of the rest of the villa.

An overall aura of tranquility and privacy makes the Villa ideal for family gatherings, special milestone birthdays, anniversaries and other festive events.
